Moses; the Example of Jannes & Jambrez, vv. 8–9; the Reasons Why Believers Can Learn but Not Apply Doctrine to Life & Circumstances

2 Timothy 3:1 - Know this, that in the last days [of a client nation or a dispensation] hard times [the cycles of discipline] will be eminent.

v. 2 - For men [reversionists under the influence of evil] shall be: lovers of themselves [cosmic 1 arrogance], lovers of money [monetary lust], boasters, arrogant, slandorous [blasphemous of God, Christ, believers, Bible, etc.], disobedient to parents [anti-authority], anti-establishment [divine institutions],

v. 3 - no capacity for unconditional love, implacable, malicious gossips, without self-control [unrestrained], violent, brutal, haters of good [cosmic-2 hatred],

v. 4 - traitors [anti-Constitution], thoughtless, conceited [obsessed with self-promotion], lovers of pleasure [hedonism] rather than lovers of God,

v. 5 - consistently having an external appearance of a form of godliness [rhetorical veils], but having renounced the power [of being inside the bubble]. Avoid such men as these.

v. 6 - For out of these types are they who worm their way into local churches and take captive [by concealing while advancing a hidden agenda] silly women [derisive for weak believers both male and female] who, having been overcome with sins, are captured by various categories of lusts,

v. 7 - always learning [the propaganda from the Dark Side's missionaries] but never able to come to the full knowledge [epígnōsis] of the truth [doctrine].

v. 8 - Moreover, in the same manner that Jannes \jan'-ēz\ and Jambres \jam-brēz\ opposed Moses [See Exodus 7:11, 22], so also these reversionists reject the truth to their disadvantage. They are men with corrupted minds and disqualified regarding doctrine.

v. 9 - But they will make no further progress; for their own mental instability will be obvious to all, just as also the opposition of those two men came to be. (EXT)

13. Jannes and Jambrez were fighting a losing battle. God was directing a sequence of miracles through Moses and Aaron that Pharaoh could not trump with his wise men, sorcerers, and magicians.
14. Likewise is the case for those who infiltrate a local church with false doctrine, who misapply doctrine, or, worse, who ignore doctrine. Such types will be found out.
15. Reversionists often talk the talk but are incapable of application. One cannot apply what he does not believe.
16. For some believers, repetition has facilitated long-term memory of many doctrines, but they were only academically discerned.
17. They cannot apply what they really have never accepted as truth. Metabolized doctrine requires them to reject previously held ideas which they are unwilling to do.

18. And there are those who believe the doctrine when taught, but, under pressure, revert back to old wheel-tracks. This shows lack of confidence in the power of the Word and preference for human-viewpoint solutions.
19. Proper application of doctrine requires that wisdom in the stream of consciousness be accessed under the enabling power of the Holy Spirit and likewise applied with faith in its veracity.
