

JOHN 16:12–13

Corrected & Expanded Translation

John 16:12 - I have many more things to teach you, but you do not have the endowed power to retain them in long-term memory now.

John 16:13 - But when He, the Holy Spirit of veracity, arrives (on the Day of Pentecost), He will teach you all the categories of systematic theology, He will not teach from the ultimate source of Himself, but whatever He hears from the Father and the Son, He will teach; and He will disclose to you what is to come, i.e., the New Testament canon.
