

Philippians 3:19 whose ultimate end is destruction under the sin unto death, whose god is their emotions, and whose fame is by means of dishonor, who keep their minds focused on earthly things. (EXT)

31. Also, on this same subject, Peter has this to write in:

2 Peter 2:1 There previously arose false prophets among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who will insidiously introduce destructive heresies, denying repeatedly the Master who bought them, bringing swift destruction upon themselves. (EXT)

32. These are enemies of God who once were positive but now have become propagandized into the Cosmic Academy. Now they are enemies of the cross of Christ.

33. So far, our expanded translation of the verse reads like this:

James 4:4a You spiritual adulteresses, do you not already know that a cordial relationship with the devil's world is tantamount to alienation toward God? (EXT)

Implications from James 4:4a:

1. In eternity past, Lucifer rebelled against the Trinity and divine authority. This was followed by a trial in which he and his fallen angels were judged guilty of sedition and sentenced eternally to the lake of fire.
2. Lucifer, as his own defense attorney, pled for an appeal claiming that he and the angels had been unfairly judged and sentenced.
3. It is evident from Scripture that this appeal was granted and the Divine Court of Appeals was called into session.
4. In order for arguments to be heard and a decision rendered, the Trinity made the decision to introduce witnesses for the Prosecution and allow Lucifer to call witnesses for the defense.
5. Adam and Ishah were created perfect and were free to use their volition as they chose. The lone exception was to avoid eating the fruit of a specific tree, whose fruit was referred to by the Lord as "the knowledge of good and evil" (Genesis 2:16–17).
6. Lucifer was allowed access to the garden since it was necessary for the first couples' volition to be challenged. He propagandized the couple with great success in Genesis 3:1–7 when both Ishah and Adam chose to eat the forbidden fruit. At this point they became spiritual adulteresses.

7. They immediately lost their impeccable status and entered into the realm of personal sin which required of them to either believe in Christ or remain associated with the Dark Side. They chose the former.
8. At that point, the original couple was once again trichotomous. Their new status was a trichotomy of perfection in soul, spirit, and body. Their volition did have the capacity to sin, but as believers they could restore fellowship by confession alone to God alone.
9. They were now residents of a fallen planet. Although saved, they were vulnerable to personal sin, and destined to experience physical death.
10. In order to provide additional witnesses for the Prosecution, their bodies were capable of producing additional witnesses through procreation.
11. However, their children also had free will and were able to choose for or against salvation through faith alone in Christ alone or not.
12. This resulted in their progeny providing witnesses in the Appeal, some testified for the Prosecution while others did so for the defense.
13. In addition, another aspect of the Appeal became evident. Since mankind was obviously fallen, believers were the only ones qualified to be witnesses for the Prosecution.
14. Consequently, this group alone had the opportunity to become good witnesses for the Prosecution. Each was qualified to willingly accept the responsibility to confess their sins, engage in serious Bible study, accumulate and enlarge their inventory of doctrinal absolutes, and be led by the Holy Spirit to apply them into the scrum of the angelic conflict.
15. Therefore, Homo sapiens is the only divinely authorized group to challenge the dark side's agenda. However, only those who are believers are divinely ordained to engage in the contest. Yet even they are limited by the inventory of doctrinal ideas resident in their souls.
16. Systematically over the course of Israelite and Gentile history, God has protected priest and client nations as a haven of refuge for believers within the hostile environment of the devil's world.
17. Lucifer runs this planet. Believers are considered by him and his acolytes to be the enemy. Therefore, Christians and Jews are considered prime targets for disinformation, propaganda, and brainwashing in the Invisible War.
18. Antonio Gramsci discovered how to utilize these tactics in the most effective way. His strategy was to forget about adults and instead concentrate on the souls of the youth beginning in grammar schools.
